

ADVANCED PLACEMENT ENGLISH CLASSES

Based on the unique parameters of the Advanced Placement English curriculum, requirements for the Independent Reading Program are significantly different than all the other English classes' requirements.

Please be certain to follow the directions specific to your placement.

AP LANGUAGE/COMPOSITION

Summer

Out of The Silent Planet

By C. S. Lewis

Instructions:

Read, think about it, talk about it, and take notes to use with the discussion and "open-note" assessment on August 23, 2018.

Fall

(No specified Independent Reading Requirement)

Spring

Perelandra

By C. S. Lewis

Instructions:

Read specified chapters weekly, prepare discussion points/questions, and participate in student-driven discussions. Upon completion, compose a rhetorical analysis essay.

Juniors (11)

Seniors (12)

AP LITERATURE/COMPOSITION

Summer

The Screwtape Letters

By C. S. Lewis

Instructions:

Read, think about it, talk about it, and take notes to use with the discussion and "open-note" assessment on August 23, 2018.

Pride and Prejudice

By Jane Austen

Instructions:

Read the unabridged version, and write an original poem (minimum of 30 lines) about the ideals, values, or concerns of the Bennets or the society in which they live. You will turn it in the first day of school. You should also be ready to be tested on it during the first full week of classes. The evaluation will be detailed and demanding.

Fall/Spring

(No specified Independent Reading Requirement)